A Warning

The Insurance Commissioner has issued the following circular, which explains itself:

To whom it may concern:

The rapid spread of speculative insurance, under the guise of Birthday, Matrimonial and Endowment Insurance, on the mutual or co-operative plan, and the frequent appearance of the advertisements of such organizations of other States in newspapers of this State, induces me, as the Insurance Commissioner of Kentucky, to thus publicly warn all persons against acting as agents of these fraudulent and illegal concerns in this State, under the penalty imposed by the insurance laws of fine and imprisonment, if not paid, on conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction in this Commonwealth.

L. C. NORMAN,
Insurance Commissioner.

Resolutions of Respect

At a regular meeting of Capital Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., on September 25, 1882, The Noble Grand appointed Past Grand J. R. Williams, Thos. J. Hutchison and W. S. Dehoney a committee to draft resolutions on regard to the death of Bro. Jerry Lee. The Committee offered the following, which were adopted:

To the N. G., Officers and Brothers: Your Committee of condolence in reference to the death of Bro. Lee, beg leave to report as follows:

WHEREAS, About fifteen years ago Bro. Jerry Lee came to Frankfort and formed many acquaintances and friends, and on March 3d, 1869, he was initiated into Capital Lodge, and of which he was a member up to the time of his death, September 19, 1882; and

WHEREAS, In the dispensation of His Providence it has pleased our Creator to remove from our midst our much esteemed and sorely regretted Brother, Past Grand Jerry Lee; therefore

Resolved, That while we humbly bow to the decree of Him who giveth and Him who taketh away, we feel most sensibly that in the death of Bro. Jerry Lee we have lost an able and impartial officer, a tried and true friend, a kind and hospitable neighbor and companion.

Resolved, That the community in which he lived has lost a public officer, honorable and dignified in his dealings, wise and prudent in his counsels, and devoted to the public weal.

Resolved, That in testimony of our regard for the lamented deceased, we wear the badge of mourning for four weeks.

Resolved, That we tender to the family of Bro. Jerry Lee, who have lost a warm and attached husband, a kind and indulgent father, and a sincerely devoted friend, our heartfelt sympathy, in this, their greatest grief.

Resolved, That the Frankfort Yeoman and RORNDABOUT be requested to publish these resolutions, that they be spread upon the records of the Lodge, and that a copy thereof be officially communicated to the family of the deceased brother.

All of which is respectfully submitted in F. L. and T.

J. RUSSELL WILLIAMS,
Thos. J. HUTCHISON,
W. S. DEHONEY,
Committee.

A PROFESSIONAL CONFESSION.

The Unusual Experience of a Prominent Man Made Public.

The following article from the Democrat and Chronicle, of Rochester, N. Y., is of so striking a nature, and emanates from so reliable a source, that it is herewith republished entire. In addition to the valuable matter it contains, it will be found exceedingly interesting.

To the Editor of the Democrat and Chronicle:

SIR:—My motive for the publication of the most unusual statements which follow are, first, gratitude for the fact that I have been saved from a most horrible death, and secondly, a desire to warn all who read this statement against some of the most deceptive influences by which they have ever been surrounded. It is a fact that to-day thousands of people are within a foot of the grave and they do not know it. To tell how I was caught away from just this position and to warn others against hearing it, are my objects in this communication.

On the first day of June, 1881, I lay at my residence in this city surrounded by my friends and waiting for my death. Heaven only knows the agony I then endured, for words can never describe it. And yet, it a few years previous, any one had told me that I was to be brought so low, and by so terrible a disease, I should have scoffed at the idea. I had always been uncommonly strong and healthy, had weighed over 160 pounds and hardly knew, in my own experience, what pain or sickness were. Very many people who will read this statement realize at times that they are unusually tired and cannot account for it. They feel dull and indefinite pains in various parts of the body and do not understand it. Or they are exceedingly hungry one day and entirely without appetite the next. This was just the way I felt when the relentless malady which had fastened itself upon me first began. Still I thought it was nothing; that probably I had taken a cold which would pass away. Shortly after this I noticed a dull, and at times a neuralgic, pain in my head, but as it would come one day and be gone the next, I paid but little attention to it. However, my stomach was out of order and my food often failed to digest, causing at times great inconvenience. Yet I had no idea, even as a physician, that these things meant anything serious or that a monstrous disease was becoming fixed upon me. Candidly, I thought I was suffering from malaria and so doctored myself accordingly. But I got no better. I next noticed a peculiar color and odor about the fluids I was passing—also that there were large quantities one day and very little the next, and that persistent froth and scum appeared upon the surface, and sediment settled in the bottom. And yet I did not realize my danger, for, indeed, seeing these symptoms continually, I finally became accustomed to them, and my suspicion was wholly disarmed by the fact that I had no pain in the affected organs or in their vicinity. Why I should have been so blind I cannot understand.

There is a terrible future for all physical neglect, and impending danger always brings a person to his senses, even though it may then be too late. I realized, at least, my critical condition and aroused myself to overcome it. And, Oh! how hard I tried! I consulted the best medical skill in the land. I visited all the prominent mineral springs in America and traveled from Maine to California. Still I grew worse. No two physicians agreed as to my malady. One said I was troubled with spinal irritation; another, nervous prostration; another, malaria; another, dyspepsia; another, heart disease; another, general debility; another, congestion of the base of the brain; and so on through a long list of common diseases, symptoms of all of which I really had. In this way several years passed during all of which time I was steadily growing worse. My condition had really become pitiable. The slight symptoms I at first experienced were developed into terrible and constant disorders—the little twigs of pain had grown to oaks of agony. My weight had been reduced from 207 to 130 pounds. My life was a torture to myself and friends. I could retain no food upon my stomach, and lived wholly by injections. I was a living mass of pain. My pulse was uncontrollable. In my agony I frequently fell upon the floor, convulsively clutched the carpet, and prayed for death. Morphine had little or no effect in deadening the pain. For six days and nights I had the death premonitory hiccoughs constantly. My urine was filled with tube casts and albumen. I was struggling with Bright's Disease of the Kidneys in its last stages.

While suffering thus I received a call from my pastor, Rev. Dr. Foote, rector of St. Paul's Church, of this city. I felt that it was our last interview, but in the course of conversation he mentioned a remedy of which I had heard much but had never used. Dr. Foote detailed to me the many remarkable cures which had come under his observation, by means of this remedy, and urged me to try it. As a practicing physician and a graduate of the schools, I cherished the prejudice both natural and common with all regular practitioners, and derided the idea of any medicine outside the regular channels being the least beneficial. So solicitous, however, was Dr. Foote, that I finally promised I would waive my prejudice and try the remedy he so highly recommended. I began its use on the 1st day of June and took it according to directions. At first it sickened me; but this I thought was a good sign for me in my debilitated condition. I continued to take it; the sickening sensation departed and I was able to retain food upon my stomach. In a few days I noticed a decided change for the better as also did my wife and friends. My hiccoughs ceased and I experienced less pain than formerly. I was so rejoiced at this improved condition that, upon what I had believed but a few days before was my dying bed, I vowed, in the presence of my family and friends, should I recover I would both publicly and privately make known this remedy for the good of humanity, wherever and whenever I had an opportunity. I also determined that I would give a course of lectures in the Corinthian Academy of Music of this city, stating to full the symptoms and almost hopelessness of my disease and the remarkable means by which I have been saved. My improvement was constant from that time, and in less than three months I had gained 25 pounds in flesh, became entirely free from pain and I believe I owe my life and present condition wholly to Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, the remedy which I used.

Since my recovery I have thoroughly re-investigated the subject of kidney difficulties and Bright's disease, and the truths developed are astounding. I therefore state, deliberately, and as a physician, that I believe that more than one-half the deaths which occur in America are caused by Bright's disease of the kidney. This may sound like a rash statement, but I am prepared to fully verify it. Bright's disease has no distinctive symptoms of its own (indeed, it often develops without any pain whatever in the kidneys or their vicinity), but has the symptoms of nearly every other known complaint. Hundreds of people die daily, whose burials are authorized by a physician's certificate of "Heart Disease," "Apoplexy," "Paralysis," "Spinal Complaint," "Rheumatism," "Pneumonia," and other common complaints, when in reality it was Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Few physicians, and fewer people, realize the extent of this disease or its dangerous and insidious nature. It steals into the systems like a thief, manifests its presence by the commonest symptoms, and fastens itself upon the constitution before the victim is aware. It is nearly as hereditary as consumption, quite as common and fully as fatal. Entire families, inheriting it from their ancestors, have died, and yet none of the number knew or realized the mysterious power which was removing them. Instead of common symptoms it often shows none whatever, but brings death suddenly, and as such is usually supposed to be heart disease. As one who has suffered, and knows by bitter experience what he says, I implore every one who reads these words not to neglect the slightest symptoms of kidney difficulty. Certain agony and possible death will be the sure result of such neglect; and no one can afford to hazard such chances.

I am aware that such an unqualified statement as this, coming from me, known as I am throughout the entire land as a practitioner and lecturer, will arouse the surprise and possible animosity of the medical profession and astonish all with whom I am acquainted, but I make the foregoing statements based upon facts which I am prepared to produce and truths which I can substantiate to the letter. The welfare of those who may possibly be sufferers such as I was is ample inducement for me to take the step I have, and if I can successfully warn others from the dangerous path in which I once walked, I am willing to endure all professional and personal consequences. J. B. HENION, M. D.

Stoney Creek.

Bro. Harvey Baker will preach at Antioch the third Sunday in this month. Everybody invited.

Miss Cordie Smith is visiting friends and relatives near Frankfort, where she will remain several days.

W. L. Webber has erected the most magnificent tobacco barn in this part of the county. It is 60 by 30 feet.

Mr. J. R. Fears is teaching our district school, which is under full headway, with from 30 to 45 in daily attendance.

Bro. Smith, from Benson, will preach at the School-house on Stoney Creek, on the third Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Come one, come all.

Our friend Poley Smith, from Belle Point, was with us on Sunday. Mr. Smith is a nice gentleman, and we are always glad to see him. Come again soon, Mr. Smith.

Our singing school, which is under the efficient management of Prof. Wiley, was largely attended on last Sunday evening by pretty young belles from all parts of the county.

Messrs. Job Smith, jr., and Henry Moore are erecting a steam grist mill on this creek, near Henry Brawner's, which is very much needed in this neighborhood. Hope that their undertaking will be crowned with success, for they are enterprising young men. TENOR.

Ashland, Pa., June 3, 1880.—A case of spavin that came under my observation was entirely cured by one bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and the horse sold afterwards for two hundred dollars. Yours truly, C. H. BARNARD.
